ABOUT KUUB

KONSORTIUM UNIVERSITI UNIVERSITAS BORNEO (KUUB)

An Alliance of Universities in Borneo for Education,
Innovation, Community and Talent Development.

The Universiti Putra Malaysia Kampus Bintulu Sarawak (UPMKB) continues its empowerment agenda by taking the initiative to establish the Konsortium Universiti Universitas Borneo (KUUB), which involves 16 (sixteen) public and government-owned universities in 3 (three) countries in Borneo, namely Brunei Darussalam, Indonesia, and Malaysia, led by UPMKB as the Permanent Secretariat.

The initiative to establish KUUB aims to enhance commitment and strategic partnerships among universities in Borneo to support excellence, capability, and internationalisation in teaching, learning, research and innovation, as well as student and staff mobility and graduate employability. Furthermore, this alliance is viewed as one of the collaborative network efforts to strengthen educational standards in the Borneo archipelago, making Brunei Darussalam, Indonesia, and Malaysia premier destinations for higher education in the Asian region.

The exchange and signing of the Declaration of Understanding (DoU) for the formation of KUUB symbolised the members' commitment to regional cooperative relations. This includes the joint organisation of conferences, congresses, seminars, training, and projects related to KUUB's focal areas: Youth Development, Women in Research and Development, University for the Community, Exchange of Arts & Culture, Leadership and Global Governance, Tourism & Hospitality Management, Conservation, and Biodiversity.

KUUB is joined by 16 (sixteen) selected universities in the Borneo region as follows:

Brunei Darussalam

1. Universiti Brunei Darussalam
2. Universiti Islam Sultan Sharif Ali
3. Universiti Teknologi Brunei

Indonesia (Kalimantan)

1. Universitas Borneo Tarakan
2. Universitas Lambung Mangkurat
3. Universitas Mulawarman
4. Universitas Palangka Raya
5. Universitas Tanjungpura

Malaysia (Sabah & Sarawak)

1. Curtin University Malaysia
2. Swinburne University of Technology Sarawak Campus
3. Universiti Malaysia Sabah
4. Universiti Malaysia Sarawak
5. Universiti Putra Malaysia Kampus Bintulu Sarawak
6. Universiti Teknologi MARA Cawangan Sarawak
